A group of seven young men and one adult man are posing in a gymnasium. They are wearing white basketball jerseys with "LATHROP THUNDER" and "CHAMPIONS" printed on them, along with black shorts. Several of the players are wearing medals around their necks. They are standing on a wooden floor in front of a basketball hoop with a Spalding logo. The background wall is off-white with some peeling paint. The text "Lathrop Thunder" is overlaid in a large, stylized orange font with a black outline at the top of the image.
